

Young MkIII: Quick-Start Guide

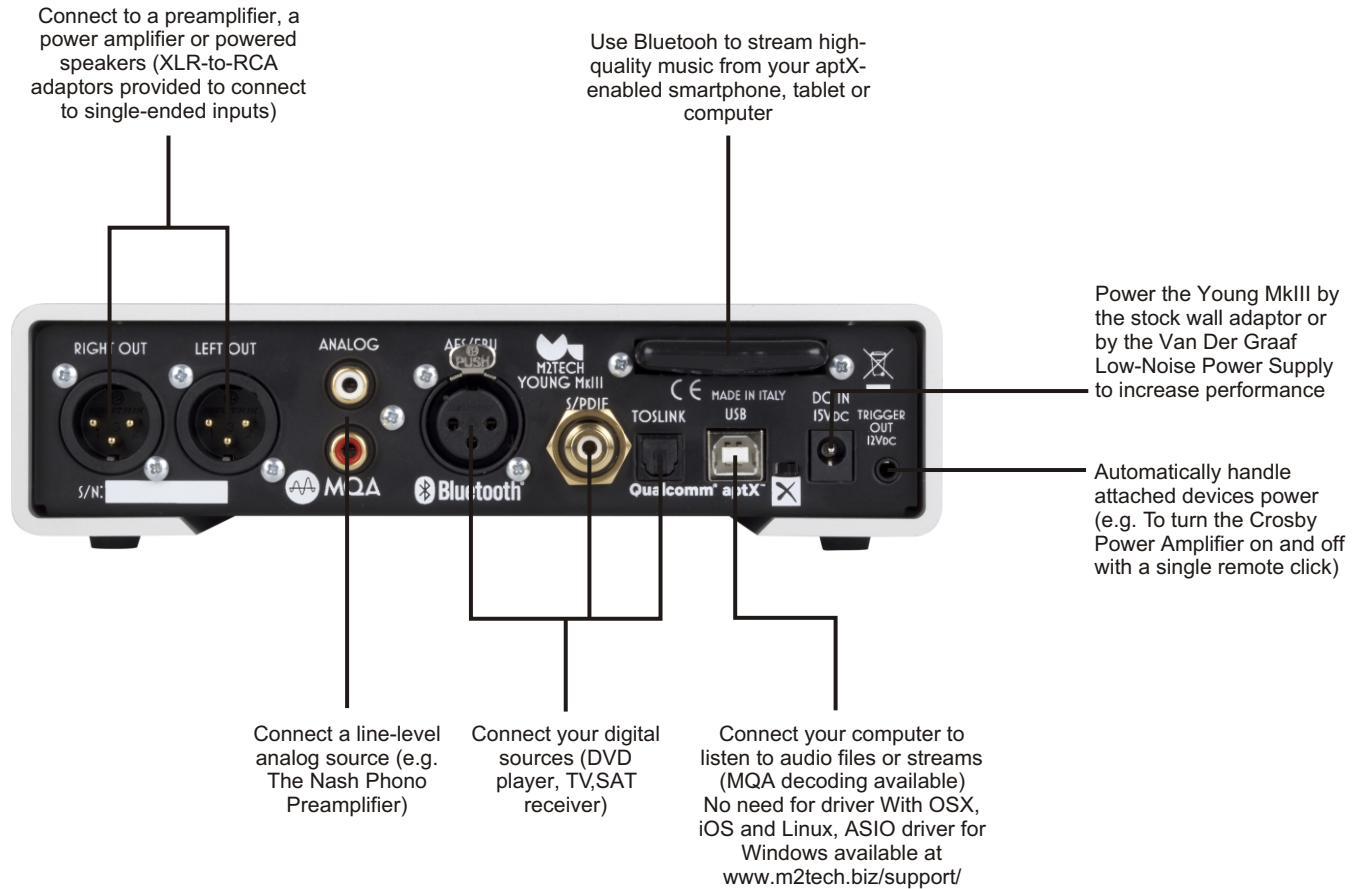

The Young MkIII is very easy and intuitive to use.

You can control it by the front panel, using the stock IR remote control or by the app for Android devices provided free by M2Tech.

Connecting the Young MkIII to your hi-fi system is quite straightforward.

As well, connecting a computer to the Young MkIII is immediate, as no driver is required for Mac and Linux computers. A driver is provided for Windows computers.
